

1 A. No.

2 Q. And your conclusion with respect to the exit
3 time on the e-mail was that, was that the dates
4 and times associated with that e-mail are
5 accurate?

6 A. Accurate in the sense that they were definitely
7 sent at that date and time would be no. If you
8 mean that the computer was accurate when it put 9 on those date and times based on whatever the 10 computer time was? I would say yes.

11 Q. Your testimony is that you have not been able to 12 refute that evidence; is that correct?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. And not that it didn't happen, just that you
15 weren't able to refute it?

16 A. I don't have any collaborating evidence that 17 tells me one way or another if it's accurate or 18 not.

19 MR. ROTE: Okay. That's all. Thank you.

20 ARBITRATOR CROW: Redirect.

21 Q. BY MS. MARSHALL: Yes. I just want to make sure
22 that I understand correctly. When Mr. Rote drew
23 the distinction between the e-mail that you
24 testified about that, if you recall that was an
